Local & Area News

◆ AUB'S WILCOX WINS WATER AWARD

Rex Wilcox is Athens Utilities Board's latest employee to gain recognition within his field of work. Wilcox, who has worked for AUB for 26 years, has received the M.L. Brickey Award from the Tennessee Water and Wastewater Association for his outstanding service to water quality control. The award is given annually to a water treatment operator who has exhibited the characteristics of "distinguished service, leadership, dedication, guidance, devotion, and untiring workmanship."

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ The Etowah Christmas Parade takes place tonight at 7 p.m. Traffic on U.S. 411 will be blocked from 2nd Street to 11th Street from 6 to 9 p.m. Due to safety issues on Ohio Ave., participants should enter Washington Ave. at 2nd Street behind North Etowah Baptist Church.
- ✓ The Englewood Christmas Parade will be Friday starting at 6:30 p.m.

National & World News

◆ Once there were a thousand names on a list of people missing, but now only eleven people remain unaccounted for in Northern California after the deadliest wildfire in state history ravaged communities and claimed 85 lives. The Butte County Sheriff's Office has located 3,175 individuals who were reported missing at some point during the blaze. The death toll has been revised to 85.

◆ Search and rescue operations are underway off the coast of Japan for a U.S. Marine Corps KC-130 refueling tanker and an F/A-18 fighter jet involved in a mishap. One person has been rescued alive by Japanese Maritime Self Defense Forces, which is leading search and rescue efforts with both surface ships and aircraft. There were five personnel on board the KC-130 and two on board the F/A-18 at the time of the incident. The aircraft were conducting regularly scheduled training when the mishap occurred.
