DENSO Announces Changes

DENSO Manufacturing will soon be making major personnel changes across its North America operations. Here in Athens, Takeshi Nagasaka, the current president of DENSO's Athens facility will be returning to the company's global headquarters in Japan for a new assignment. Marty Deschenes will become the new president of DENSO's Athens plant. He will transition from his current role as vice president of the Electrification, Starter & Alternator Division at DENSO's facility in Maryville. DENSO says that the changes are being made throughout their North America operation so they improve performance and expand research and development in areas such as electrification and automated driving technologies.

◆ WRECK ON HIGHWAY 411 SOUTH
On Friday at around 1:30 p.m., a 2003 Dodge Durango and a 2007 Hyundai Entourage collided on Highway 411 S, Englewood, resulting in one minor injury. Englewood and Etowah Rural Fire Departments and AMR all responded along with THP officer Travis Ryans who investigated the accident. Photo by Lynn Ingram with the Englewood Rural Fire Department.

Community News You Can Use

- ✓ The Tennessee Department of Transportation estimates that the work on South White Street will take another six months to finish. Instead of it being completed in October of this year, the estimated completion date is in April of 2020. The reason for the delay is because it was recently discovered that the plans for the second phase of the project did not match the actual conditions in the field and two large retaining walls were added to the project which required rescheduling some utility relocations and that pushed the final paving date into next January. Since no paving can be done in winter weather, the final projected completion date has been adjusted to April 30th, 2020. TDOT says that will allow the contractor adequate time to complete final paving, pavement marking, and other end of job activities.
- ✓ The guest on the new Main Street Athens radio show, "Main Street Moments", will be Lisa Dotson, Executive Director of Main Street Athens. The show will air Tuesday at 8:15 a.m. on WYXI Radio, FM 94.5 and AM 1390 or ONLINE
- ✓ The Good Faith Clinic will be held on Tuesday, March 12th, at Christ Community Church, 14 S. Congress Parkway. Doors open at 2:30 p.m. This primary medical clinic is open to all McMinn and Meigs county residents that are uninsured and proof of residency is required.
