Now You See 'em, Now You Don't

How long does it take youngsters to find 12,000 eggs? Athens Parks Director Austin Fesmire ran the stop watch and said it took one minute and 31 seconds for those eggs to be scooped up. The annual Athens Easter Egg Hunt took place this past Saturday at Athens Regional Park. The hunt was for children 12 and under. Parents joined in as well to make sure their kids got some eggs. The eggs contained coupons good for prizes, including five LED flat screen TVs. Greg Moses with the Parks Department sent us several photos.

Pre-cut melon sold at Walmart, Target, and other stores has been voluntarily recalled due to the possibility of salmonella contamination. The recalled products include pre-cut watermelon, honeydew melon, and cantaloupe. The products were sold in several states, including Tennessee.

North Carolina officials say all four lanes of Interstate 40 near the border with Tennessee should reopen in May. A rockslide closed the highway over two months ago. One lane is currently open in each direction.
