Looking for a good murder? Etowah is the place to be. The Etowah Area Chamber of Commerce will combine entertainment with true local history October 24th-26th in the 8th annual presentation of Murders on Main Street. The program is a historic interpretation of six murders that occurred on Tennessee Avenue from 1908-1947. Walking tours will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. each evening. The Gem Players will portray the part of those accused of murder and their victims at the actual spots where the murders occurred. All of the events were taken straight out of newspaper accounts and court documents. (One came from the photo of a moonshine still shown below. The man on the extreme right was revenue agent Burkitt Ivens, who was accused of murdering a man) Tickets are $10.

TUESDAY'S MARKET REPORT: U.S. stocks rose as investors processed corporate earnings reports. Bank stocks were higher.
