Multiple Fires Keep Crews Busy

Firefighters were busy over the weekend. Around 7:30 Saturday morning the truck pictured caught on fire on North Amhurst Place in Englewood. The driver said that the back brake locked-up causing the tire and wheels to catch fire. The fire was extinguished by Englewood Rural and Etowah Rural Fire Departments. Assisting was Englewood Police Department.

About 11 p.m. Saturday the family of the house pictured smelled smoke and discovered the back of the house on fire. Due to high winds, the house was fully involved and the fire spread and burned 8 acres on CR 468 near Englewood. Five fire departments responded. Photos submitted by Lynn Ingram.
