Mutual Aid in Madisonville

Mutual Aid was requested at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 1st by Madisonville City Fire Department for a structure fire on Pedigo Road in Madisonville. The fire started in a room in the back of the house. There was extensive heat and smoke damage with three animals perishing in the fire. The owner was at home at the time of the fire. Madisonville City Fire, Tri Community, Englewood Rural Fire, Madisonville City Police, and Monroe County EMS all responded with Madisonville City Fire Captain Lee Fadeley in command of the scene.

Community News You Can Use

- ✓ The McMinn County Education Foundation Board of Directors has announced the retirement of longtime Executive Director, Julia Reedy. She faithfully served the organization in the leadership roll for over 11 years. Ginger Robinson, a long time resident of McMinn County, will be stepping into the new position after serving as a teacher in Athens City Schools for 38 years. The Foundation is dedicated to improving the quality of education in our area. The MCEF has distributed over 500,000 books to children from birth to 5 years old. They provide scholarships to area seniors, and have given over $400,000 to support teachers' need for supplies in the classroom. Mrs. Robinson stated, "It is my hope that we can continue the legacy of service established by Mrs. Reedy. The children of McMinn deserve nothing less."
- ✓ The Meigs-Decatur Public Library's Summer Reading Program has started and will continue through July 8th. It is open to every age and is free. Sign up to read 20 minutes a day for 20 days, attend the many entertaining events, and enter to receive great prizes. The Library is located at 120 E. Memorial Drive in Decatur.
