SRMC Notes DAISY Award Winner

Starr Regional Medical Center recently announced that Abigail Newberry, RN, has been named the recipient of The DAISY Award for the first quarter of 2022. The DAISY Award for Extraordinary Nurses is a recognition program honoring "the super-human work nurses do for patients and families every day." Nominations for the award may be submitted by anyone who experiences or observes extraordinary, compassionate care being provided by a nurse. Newberry's nomination for the award highlighted her kind and gentle spirit and her willingness to take extra steps to assist her patients and co-workers. The nominator also added that Newberry is always willing to help her co-workers by picking up extra shifts and volunteering to help with extra projects, including developing an educational in-service program for staff members. Newberry joined Starr Regional Medical Center as a staff nurse in 2017, as a patient care technician. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Pensacola (FL) Christian College. As a RN Newberry has worked in the Medical and Surgical Unit and Intensive Care Unit. She assumed her role as nursing supervisor in 2021. Newberry earned Critical Care Registered Nurse (CCRN) certification, a specialty certification for nurses providing direct bedside care to acutely and/or critically ill adult patients.
