New Tennessee Laws

The following laws become effective on July 1st:

SB 2769 Prohibits corrections officers from restraining a prisoner or detainee that is known to be pregnant, except under an "extraordinary circumstance" that requires restraints for the safety and security of the person, staff, or other detainees. Such situations would still prevent officers from using leg or waist restraints on a prisoner that is in labor, and restraints would need to be applied in the least restrictive manner possible.

HB 2270 Enacts Nicholas' Law, which treats the second offense of boating under the influence the same as a second offense of driving under the influence, meaning the person is prohibited from operating a vehicle until they are able to seek reinstatement of their driving privileges.

MONDAY'S MARKET REPORT Equities bounced around the flat line for most of the day before finishing lower. The 10-year Treasury yield rose near 3.2%. The energy, healthcare, utilities and consumer staples sectors led the day. The Dow Jones Industrial Average was down 62.42 to 31,438.26. The Standard & Poor's 500 Index was down 11.63 to 3,900.11. and the NASDAQ Composite Index was down 83.07 to 11,524.55.
