Seniors to Have Furry Visitors

The McMinn Senior Activity Center has announced that on Tuesday, October 4th at 9am Shadow and Sparky from Pet Path, a non-profit dog rescue and re-homing service, will be visiting the Center. The majority of Pet Path dogs come from numerous animal control shelters in the southeast region of Tennessee, as well as hoarding situations and owner surrenders that may otherwise be taken directly to the shelter. Pet Path strives to save the forgotten ones, the ones that no one comes for, the ones that become urgent because their time has run out. They are committed to providing the dogs that come into Pet Path with the best possible care while they wait for their fur-ever homes.
