Sarah Kite Receives Award

Sarah Kite, McMinn County Extension Agent, was honored recently at the National Extension Association for Family and Consumer Sciences (NEAFCS) with 'The Continued Excellence Award' for The University of Tennessee Extension Service. It is the highest level award someone can receive nationally within the Extension System. To be considered, the person must have previously been awarded the 'Distinguished Service Award,' which is a high honor in itself. She was recently recognized on the national level in Raleigh, North Carolina. Sarah is one of the reasons McMinn County receives sustained, positive responses from the University of Tennessee system and state leaders, including personal and professional praise from the University President himself, Randy Boyd. Sarah Kite's commitment to meeting the needs of individuals, families and communities is exemplary. The photo at right shows Sarah and NEAFCS President, Susan Routh.

VOTE NO ON AMENDMENT 1

So-called "right to work" has been Tennessee law for 75 years, but now factories with union shops are bringing new jobs and new growth to our state. Millionaires like Lee & Haslam are worried about change and progress. Support a living wage & workers' rights. Vote NO on 1 November 8.

I AM STRONGLY PRO WORKER AND PRO FAMILY AND WILL FIGHT TO PROTECT ALL TENNESSEANS.

VOTE DR. PATRICIA WATERS!
