McMinn Senior Activity Center Receives Grant

The McMinn Senior Activity Center was recently awarded an $8,000 grant provided by the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability. The photo at right shows local and state officials who celebrated with senior center staff including McMinn Senior Center board members Carey Hicks and Dick Pelley, Representative Mark Cochran, Senior Center Executive Director Diane Hutsell, TCAD Executive Director James Dunn, MSAC board members Melinda King and Jordan Johnston, and Southeast Tennessee Area Agency on Aging and Disability Executive Director Criss Grant. "This funding is vital for the health and well-being of older adults across Tennessee, as senior centers provide access to an array of opportunities to stay safe, active, and healthy," TCAD Executive Director James Dunn said in an earlier statement. "We presented the impact made last year with these grants to the Tennessee General Assembly, and I'm grateful they gave us more funding this year to have an even greater effect on the lives of aging Tennesseans."
