Open House/Job Fair

Starr Regional Medical Center (SRMC) will host a Fall Open House & Job Fair on Tuesday, October 17th from 4 – 6 p.m. The event is free and will take place in the medical office buildings behind the hospital, including Athens Medical Mall, Athens Medical Arts Plaza, and Athens Professional Building, as well as the outdoor spaces. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about and apply for career opportunities and services at SRMC and meet affiliated providers. Community members also are encouraged to bring their children to "trick-or-treat" in the participating practices. "We are eager to invite community members onto our Athens campus to meet providers face-to-face, apply for available job opportunities and learn more about the services we offer that advance our mission of making communities healthier," said John McLain, Starr Regional Medical Center CEO. "In addition to being informative, we want to host something fun for our community members. What's more fun than an open house with a food truck, costumes, and candy?" The American Job Center's Mobile Coach will be onsite for job candidates to apply for positions during the event and the Midlife Frys food truck will be there for anyone wanting to order a snack or meal. Everyone attending the event should plan to park in the parking lot in front of the Athens Medical Mall or the lot to the left of the Athens Medical Arts Plaza, both of which are located off Cook Drive in Athens. Staff members and volunteers will be present to guide visitors to the appropriate area and an event map is available online at StarrRegional.com. There will be no activities related to the open house or job fair taking place inside the hospital. For more information about the Fall Open House & Job Fair, visit StarrRegional.com or call 423.745.1411.
