Former McMinn County Sheriff's Office Employee Charged After Late-Night Domestic Altercation

The McMinn County Sheriff's Office has arrested former deputy Caleb Latham following a late-Sunday-night domestic incident at a residence on Highway 39 West near Athens, according to Sheriff Joe Guy.

Deputies were dispatched after receiving reports of a possible domestic situation involving Latham. When officers arrived, they made contact with Latham and his girlfriend, Dixie Bidwell, and observed a heated verbal argument. Sheriff Guy noted that, as in many homes locally, firearms were present, prompting deputies to proceed cautiously. Latham left the residence voluntarily while deputies continued interviewing Bidwell and witnesses.

Sheriff Guy said that after reviewing body-camera footage, consulting with the District Attorney General's Office, and evaluating all statements and evidence, investigators determined the situation was more serious than initially believed. On Monday morning, warrants were issued charging Latham with Aggravated Assault by Domestic Violence. He turned himself in later that afternoon and is being held on a $15,000 bond, with a court date to be set. The investigation remains active.

Latham worked for the Sheriff's Office from August 2018 until June 2026, serving as a deputy sheriff and Patrol Sergeant before resigning to take a job in local industry.

"Domestic issues are often difficult, especially when it involves a friend or someone we've worked with," Sheriff Guy said. "But we have to consider the safety and welfare of everyone involved."

Big Crowd Turns Out for ThompsonGas Customer Appreciation Day

ThompsonGas drew a huge turnout Friday afternoon as customers braved the rain to celebrate the company's Customer Appreciation Day at its Athens location. The event featured free hamburgers and hotdogs, $10 grill cylinder refills, and a full slate of giveaways that kept visitors coming back to the registration table.

Guests enjoyed meeting and chatting with Brother Barry and Stephanie from WYXI Radio during the live broadcast, adding to the festive atmosphere.

Regional Manager Dave Bobich (pictured above on left with Brother Barry on the right) said the event exceeded expectations. He described the crowd as "very, very busy" and noted that staff were grateful for the strong community support and turnout.

ACT to Open Season with Mean Girls Musical Aug. 21–30

Athens Community Theatre will launch its 2026–27 Mainstage season with the Tony Award-winning musical Mean Girls, running August 21–30 under the direction of Michael Webb. The PG-13 production features a mix of returning performers and newcomers, including Nahla Hanks as Regina and Ashley Beaton making her ACT debut as Cady.

The cast includes ACT regulars Emerson McKenzie, Blake Chastain, Charity Lawson, Joshua Bragg, and Kelly Borwick, alongside returning performers Skylar Roush and Paxton Dunn. New faces join the ensemble as well, supported by music directors Joshua Bragg and Matthew Crabtree, and choreographer Ethan León.

Tickets are $20 for adults and $15 for students, with Friday–Saturday shows at 7 p.m. and Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. on August 23 and 30. ACT encourages early purchases as performances often sell out.
